

To whom it may concern,

I believe Christian radio is very important in this world today. With secular radio today there is nothing but obscenities being said around the clock, without concern as to who is listening. Christian radio is the exact opposite with only good coming from it. Any change in the way Christian radio is broadcast is un-needed and un-necessary.

Concerned listener,

Harley J. Weishaupt II